JOINT STATUS REPORT

The parties in SEC v. Barton submit the following Joint Status Report in response to this Court’s July 5, 2023, Order for the “parties to meet and confer and, by July 12, 2023, inform the Court whether they agree to proceed before a mandate issues from the Fifth Circuit.”

The interested parties met and had a productive discussion on the way forward. While the Commission agrees to proceed, and understands this Court to have jurisdiction to proceed, before the mandate of the Fifth Circuit issues. Defendant Barton believes that the Court lacks jurisdiction to entertain requests to impose a replacement receivership before the Fifth Circuit’s mandate is issued and that the parties probably cannot create that jurisdiction by agreement. As a result, Defendant Barton does not agree to proceed before a mandate issues from the Fifth Circuit.

The parties, however, did agree to discuss a potential resolution of the issues underlying the receivership question. The parties will promptly report to the Court if any such settlement is reached.

Dated: July 12, 2023

Respectfully submitted,
